All documents have to be presented in original with two copies (including 2 sets of application forms!). Please do not send supporting documents to the embassy but bring them to your appointment. Please note that incomplete applications will not be accepted and you have to book a new appointment. Visa for a stay exceeding 90 days per six months require the consent of the local immigration authority in Germany. Therefore, the processing time for a long term visa depends on both the complexity of the case and the individual processing times of the immigration authority. The Embassy has no influence on the processing times of the immigration authority and cannot guarantee that a long term visa will be issued in a certain amount of time or before a certain date. In many cases six to ten weeks is realistic, however, in some cases it may take much longer. You can download the application forms and a list of translators free of charge from our website or obtain a free copy at the embassy. Please note that each visa application is reviewed individually. The Embassy reserves the right to ask for additional documents. The submission of the above mentioned documents does not guarantee the issue of a visa. Applicants can at any time be asked for an additional personal interview.
